

Who we are

We are an Information Technology solutions provider with...

- Over 20 years of experience
- A wide range of technology capabilities
- Proven methodologies for achieving maximal organizational effectiveness with both not-for-profit and commercial businesses

That specializes in...

- Blackbaud product support and solutions
- Microsoft Windows, Office, and BackOffice solutions/automation
- Custom database application development and systems integration
- Organizational effectiveness
- Business Process Design

What we do

Our mission is to cost-effectively improve client organizational effectiveness, productivity, and profitability through consistent application of...

- Proven management models and methods
- Business and information technology
- Structured approaches to providing solutions

We achieve our mission through application of...

- Our knowledge, experience, and attention to details
- Technology
- Consistent, repeatable business processes
- A business structure that provides maximum client responsiveness at the lowest possible cost
- A system of professional associates to provide special capabilities and depth of resource

Who we serve

We serve both not-for-profit and commercial businesses in industries such as (but not limited to)...

- Foundations
- Private schools, universities, and alumni associations
- Faith-based organizations
- Performing Arts
- Museums
- Healthcare and residential care
- Manufacturing

How we can help

Please contact Semper Technology if...

- Your organization is facing business and technology challenges
- You would like to streamline your information-based operations
- You would like to integrate systems to eliminate double-entry
- You would like to learn more about how we can increase your organizational effectiveness, productivity, and profitability